IMPRISONMENT BY PIECEMEAL.-A good story is told of Judge Kent. A man was indicted for burglary, and the evidence on the trial showed that this burglary consisted in cutting a hole through a rubber tent in which several persons were sleeping and then projecting his head and arm through the hole and abstracting various articles of value. It was claimed by his counsel that, in-asmuch as he never actually entered into the tent with his whole body, he had not committed the offense charged, and not committed the otlense charged, and must, therefore, be discharged. Judge Kent, in reply to this plea, told the jury that, if they were not satisfied that the whole man was involved in that the whole man was involved in the crime they might bring in a verdict of guilty against so much of him as was thus involved. The jury, after a few moments of consultation, found the right arm, the right shoulder and the head of the prisoner guilty of the of-fense of burglary. The Judge sen-tenced the right arm, the right should-age and head to imprisonment at hard er and head to imprisonment at hard labor in the State prison for two years remarking that, as to the rest of his body, he might do with it what he
